

FAQs

Q. Are your services free?

A. Yes, our services are completely free.

Q. Can anyone, other than the patient, apply to the program?

A. Yes, anyone can apply to the program on the patient's behalf. If the person completing the application is not the patient, they must sign the application attesting to the fact that the patient has given them the authority to complete the application on their behalf.

Q. I have health insurance but it does not cover my treatment and/or medications. Can CPR help?

A. No, CPR is unable to make payments for pharmaceutical treatments and/or prescription medications relative to your diagnosis that are not covered by your health insurance.

Q. What medications does CPR cover?

A. CPR is not drug specific. We assist with co-payments, co-insurance, and deductibles for all pharmaceutical products prescribed for the treatment and management of your disease as long as the products are covered by your insurance plan.

Q. I would love to donate to your program. What do I need to do?

A. Every dollar delivers hope to patients. Visit <https://copays.org/donors/> to donate.

A Long-Standing Commitment to Compliance

A strong commitment to compliance has been a hallmark of the Co-Pay Relief Program (CPR) since its inception in 2004. CPR holds the second opinion issued by the Office of Inspector General (OIG) to a charitable patient assistance program. We have always understood our obligation to operate CPR with the highest degree of ethical decision making, ensuring all policies, procedures and practices are designed and implemented in a manner that comports with both the spirit and intent of all OIG guidance received by the Foundation.

We maintain safeguards to ensure that CPR operates independently, free from donor influence, and in compliance with the guidance provided by the OIG in our opinion, # 04-15 issued to PAF in 2004, and modified in 2008 and 2015, as well as the Special Advisory Bulletins issued in 2005 and 2014. CPR is also subject to a best-in-class organization wide compliance program.

Medication and treatment should be a relief, not a burden.

Patient Advocate Foundation's Co-Pay Relief (CPR) program provides direct financial assistance to medically and financially qualified patients for health insurance premiums, co-payments, co-insurance and deductibles for medications prescribed to treat and manage their disease.

Delivering Positive Patient Experiences

Many patients cannot afford prescribed care without financial help. CPR exists to help improve access and reduce financial distress experienced by eligible, low-income patients. Program specialists are available to work directly with the patient or someone they designate to assist, provider of care or pharmacy to complete the streamlined application. Whether applying online or over the phone, you will know immediately upon completion of the application if you are eligible for assistance.

CPR Offers:

- User-friendly online application portals
- Electronic verification of income
- Live Spanish language services
- Immediate eligibility decision
- Look-back period for recently incurred expenses
- Payments made directly to the provider, pharmacy or patient

Eligibility Requirements

- Must be currently insured and have coverage for the medication(s) for which you're seeking financial assistance
- Have a confirmed diagnosis and treatment plan
- Must reside and receive treatment in the United States
- Income must fall at or below 300% or 400% of the Federal Poverty Guideline (FPG), adjusted for the Cost of Living Index (COLI) and number in household, depending on the fund.

"... Your assistance was very appreciated and brought about a peace of mind. The medical cost is overwhelming, and a person cannot imagine the strain it puts on a family ... We were so consumed with trying to figure out how to pay for the medication, that we could not focus on my health issues ... we cannot thank you enough."
